

YONSEI SUMMER

2013 YONSEI INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Dear Partner,

Warm greetings from Yonsei University in Seoul, Korea!

It is my great pleasure to write to you today on behalf of our Director Rennie Moon to seek your assistance in promoting a special featured course for the 2013 Yonsei International Summer School (YISS). Since its establishment in 1985, YISS has been at the forefront to provide students with quality education and rewarding experience in a truly international environment in the heart of Seoul, Korea. YISS students have had an opportunity not only to enrich their academic knowledge, but also to broaden their global perspective through experiencing a unique blend of Korean and international cultures.

For the 2013 summer, we are pleased to offer a special featured course: Comparative East Asian Studies. Co-taught by distinguished faculty from Yonsei's international network, the course examines key issues shaping the three major East Asian countries - China, Japan, and South Korea - in comparative perspective. Topics vary each year, combining a wide range of theoretical, methodological, and multidisciplinary approaches. The course also ensures an enrollment of a diverse group of students and facilitates an engaged discussion with ideas generated from a full spectrum of settings and experiences.

We strongly encourage your university students to participate in our featured course and have an unforgettable summer in 2013. If any student from your university is interested in studying at YISS, please inform us so that we may further consider offering a special scholarship to those students.

Thank you for your time and cooperation in advance.

Sincerely,

Yeonsoo Kim
Coordinator

Professor Rennie Moon, Director
Yonsei International Summer School
Office of International Affairs
Yonsei University

YONSEI SUMMER

2013 YONSEI INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

SPECIAL FEATURED COURSE

Comparative East Asian Studies

July 2 ~ August 8, 2013

In 2013, the Yonsei International Summer School offers a special featured course: Comparative East Asian Studies. Co-taught by distinguished faculty from Yonsei's international network, the course examines key issues shaping the three major East Asian countries - China, Japan, and South Korea - in comparative perspective. Topics vary each year, combining a wide range of theoretical, methodological, and multidisciplinary approaches.

2013 FACULTY

Professor Christina Davis
Department of Politics and
Public and International Affairs
Princeton University

Theme:
East Asian Political Economy

Professor Gi-Wook Shin
Department of Sociology
Stanford University

Theme:
East Asian International Relations

Professor Allen Carlson
Department of Government
Cornell University

Theme:
East Asian Security

