EU-CHINA DOC Conference and Workshop on European Doctoral Education and EU-China Dialogue and Cooperation in Doctoral Education
Vrije Universiteit Brussel, 8-9 May 2014

The EU-CHINA DOC is an Erasmus Mundus Action 3 Project supported by the European Commission. The Project organizes the Conference and Workshop on European Doctoral Education and EU-China Dialogue and Cooperation in Doctoral Education in Brussels, Belgium during 8-9 May, 2014.

The Conference and Workshop will focus on three major issues a) introducing the European policy, governance, structure and international cooperation in doctoral education and significance of PhD education; b) issues and opportunities of EU-China cooperation in Doctoral Education, and c) good PhD supervision.

The participants from Chinese stakeholders will mainly include a) Doctoral Education administrators and policy makers, b) PhD supervisors, c) responsible persons for EU-China higher education cooperation and international academic and research cooperation. The Chinese delegation will include key players from Chinese key universities, higher education associations and relevant policy making authorities.

From the European side, administrators and policy makers in the field of higher education and research, doctoral education, coordinators, responsible persons for research coordination, research innovations, education policies, international policy and relations, PhD supervisors, and doctoral researchers will participate in the Conference and Workshops.

Participation in the Conference and Workshop is free of charge. Please register for your participation for this event through the following link (before 15 April, 2014): http://www.euchinadoc.com/project-group/events/ For more information, please contact ECHE@vub.ac.be. We look forward to meeting you in May in Brussels, Belgium!

With best regards,
Prof. dr. Chang Zhu
EU-CHINA DOC Project Coordinator
Director EU-China Higher Education Research Center
Vrije Universiteit Brussel
http://www.euchinadoc.com/