

UCLA THIS SUMMER!!!

Communication Studies 1A & 1B

ICSIS:

The Summer Institute in Communication Skills for International Students

CS 1A: Public Speaking for Nonnative Speakers

CS 1B: Learning American English and Culture from Movies

Communication Studies 1A & 1B comprise a unique six-week intensive institute of study designed for nonnative speakers

QUICKLY LEARN TO COMMUNICATE AMERICAN-STYLE!

These two interlinked courses teach both native and nonnative speakers to interact effectively and comfortably using everyday American-style English. Through public speaking assignments (1A) and classroom workshops on popular American movies (1B) students will quickly increase their ability to communicate while understanding how Americans speak, think and act in everyday life.

OFFERED:

SESSION A: June 25 – August 3

SESSION C: August 6 – September 14

See UCLA's Summer Session Schedule of Classes for Class Times and Locations

(Either CS1A or CS1B can be taken independently.
Each class is for four credits of letter grade or P/NP.)

We may add more class sections depending on the number of students enrolling in each class.

TO ENROLL:

Register online at www.summer.ucla.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

UCLA Summer Sessions

Web site: www.summer.ucla.edu

E-mail: info@summer.ucla.edu

Fax: 310-825-1528

Mailing Address:

UCLA Summer Sessions

Box 951418

Los Angeles, CA 90095-1418

COMMUNICATION STUDIES 1A and 1B constitute the new ICSIS:
Institute in Communication Skills for International Students
<http://www.summer.ucla.edu/institutes/Communication/overview.htm>

Students enrolled in both courses earn a Certificate of Completion

Contact: Sylvia Merschel/Dee Bridgewater at the UCLA Department of Communication Studies merschel@ucla.edu dbridge@speech.ucla.edu

w w w . s u m m e r . u c l a . e d u