

The UCL Summer School gives you the chance to study in London for three or six weeks over the summer and gain credit towards your degree programme.

About UCL

Founded in 1826, in the heart of London, UCL is the city's leading multidisciplinary university with an international reputation for high-quality teaching and research. Our academic specialisms cover most subjects, from the arts and social sciences to health and physical sciences, and our innovative focus on interdisciplinary study to examine global issues sets us apart.

Consistently ranked among the top ten universities in the world, our academic excellence and location in one of the world's most dynamic capital cities offer unrivalled personal, social and academic benefits.

London's Global University

UCL has a global reach and a global vision. We currently welcome students from over 150 different countries, and recognise and celebrate the diversity and different viewpoints that our students bring. Our academic staff, drawn from around 100 different countries, are similarly diverse.

Global outlook, global issues

The Summer School modules on offer give a flavour of UCL's ethos and academic expertise. Our aim is to make "global citizens" of all our students, and we invite you to think about issues affecting the entire world.

All UCL Summer School modules aim to incorporate the latest research in each subject area, and many also make use of London as a unique learning resource, taking the learning experience beyond the classroom through excursions and field trips.

Entry requirements

You will have completed at least one year of undergraduate study at the time of joining the UCL Summer School and normally be able to demonstrate an average grade, or equivalent academic experience, of:

- // 3.3/4.0 GPA (US scale)
(3.0 for second- or third-year students applying for lower level modules)
- // 2.1 (UK scale)

English language requirement

Students who are not nationals of a UK Home Office majority English-speaking country are required to provide evidence of English language proficiency.

London

London is a place like no other. Ranked by QS as the world's "Best Student City" 2018-2024, it is home to world-famous historical sites such as the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace and Big Ben and is a global centre for entertainment, culture, shopping and the arts.

London's late summer sunsets give you hours of evening daylight after class, and UCL's central location in leafy Bloomsbury, the traditional intellectual and literary hub of the city, gives you the perfect base from which to explore.

About the UCL Summer School

The UCL Summer School is divided into two sessions, each spanning three weeks (dates can be found on the back of this leaflet). You can choose to attend for one or two sessions, and you will study one module per session.

All Summer School modules are taught by UCL academics in interactive participatory groups. Many modules incorporate class visits and guest speakers to further enhance your learning.

As a UCL Summer School student you will have full-time student status and a UCL ID card which entitles you to full borrowing rights in all of our libraries.

With 16 specialist libraries and five permanent collections on campus, and all of London's museums, galleries and monuments within easy reach, you will have a wealth of resources to support your studies.

Modules

The UCL Summer School offers over 60 modules from a wide range of subject areas. Many of our modules are introductory, meaning no prior subject knowledge is required, while others have specific entry requirements (level 2 or level 3 modules).

For full module descriptions, please visit: ucl.ac.uk/summerschool

UCL recommends that each module is worth the equivalent of 4 US credits or 7.5 ECTS. Students can be guaranteed that each module carries the same academic rigor and workload as a standard UCL undergraduate module. Depending on the regulations at your home institution it may be possible to transfer credits gained to your own degree programme.

Accommodation

Staying in a UCL residence is a good way to get to know other students, familiarise yourself with the UCL campus and have a base in London.

All Summer School students are entitled to discounted rates at a choice of UCL residences.

For further information, please visit: ucl.ac.uk/summerschool

Social and cultural programme

We want you to make the most of your time in London, and have designed a comprehensive social and cultural programme to help you to do just that.

Your evenings will be filled with an offering of free events on and off campus such as a welcome reception, karaoke and quiz nights, sunset picnics and a boat party on the iconic River Thames.

Other events will include West End shows, Shakespeare plays and day trips to historical and cultural attractions offering something for everyone!

Details on how to sign up for events and activities will be available at: ucl.ac.uk/summerschool
